
BENEFITS AVAILABLE TO PROBATIONARY OFFICERS

(HOBC 104/148 dated 18/2/2011)

Probationary Officers are entitled to reimbursement of the following expenses as per their entitlement in respective scales:

- Newspaper expenses
- Cleaning material expenses
- Conveyance expenses
- Residential/subsidized accommodation as per eligibility
- Briefcase
- Transportation expenses upon transfer as per service regulations
- Officiating Allowance if assigned by the Competent Authority
- Entertainment Expenses
- Telephone facility at residence (if eligible as per designation)
- Medical Aid/ex-gratia Medical Aid
- Vehicle Loan after completion of 6 months satisfactory service, on the same terms & condition as applicable to public
- DRO will be eligible to claim actual travelling expenses, if any, incurred by him/her for himself/herself alone, for travel from his station as recorded with the bank or from his place of domicile/home town, to the place of joining as may be instructed by the bank, by the class and mode of transport to which he/she is eligible as per Regulation 41 of OSR.
- LTC-DRO who are not able to avail of LTC facility, during the two year period of probation, may be allowed to carry over the two year block span, for a further period of six months.